

Romans 1:18-2:16 | Week 2 | 2/9/2014

1. Read Romans 1:18 - 2:4.
2. What does creation show us about God? (1:18-20)
3. Why is God angry? (1:18, 21-23)
4. What does ingratitude expose about the heart? (1:21)
5. How does God respond to our ungratefulness? (1:24-31)
6. In what ways is God kind to us? (2:4)
7. How are we tempted to "presume" on his kindness?
8. Three times it is mentioned that "God gave them up to" in 24, 26, and 28. What does Paul mean by this phrase?
9. Paul's main point is to illustrate that "everyone needs the gospel" by showing the disordered affections of humanity. In what ways are your desires out of order? That is, what do I want that I know I ought not to want, and what do I not want that I know I ought to want?
10. What would it be like to live in a town where all the people were like those described in verses 28-32, especially those depicted in 32?
11. What does Paul teach about homosexual desires and how do they illustrate his main point? (1:24-27)
12. Why does condemning bad behaviors in others condemn me too? (2:1-4) How does this show my everyday need for the gospel?
11. Pray.
